

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXVI.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1897.

NO. 63

Liberty

The court of claims was in session here Tuesday and Wednesday.

The school here under charge of Miss Julia Stagg is said to be in the best order, with the promise of a most successful term.

Little Dallas Rule, who has been living with his uncle, H. W. Phillips, for some time, has gone to London to visit another of his uncles there.

Royal Wilkerson went to Somerset Tuesday to procure license to marry Miss Pearl Cundiff, of Mintonville. There are weddings and rumors of weddings and from the signs of the times many of the young men of this town are yearning to become Benedictines. Some perchance will fail and come and join our society for consolation of old bachelors, where we read "Locksley Hall" and "Miles Standish" or any other old thing, and profess to be happy. Its membership is large already, but there is yet room and its doors are still open to the jilted and downcast. So come.

Lafayette Sharp, after a month's illness, is able to stay in his store again. Little Althe Stagg is again quite sick with malarial fever. J. P. Wilkinson and John Whipp, Jr., went to Louisville Monday. Mrs. Mary Whipp is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ellis, near Owensboro. Ed Stagg, of Hustonville, is here on a fishing expedition. Mrs. Cal Adams has returned to Liberty and will reside in her house from which she moved directly after the death of her husband. Judge J. D. Belden is attending circuit court in Lebanon. Dr. J. C. Barker, of Hustonville, and Dr. Oscar Dehann, of Danville, were here Tuesday. Miss Mollie Dornally is visiting near Bradfordsville. Dr. C. L. Herren and wife went to Louisville Tuesday to attend the meeting of the Mississippi Valley Medical Association. Wm. Sandrim, who has been making saddles and harness for H. W. Phillips, left Monday for London. He enjoys the reputation of being the best harness maker who ever struck this town. Mr. Phillips expects to have him back with him shortly.

Middleburg, Casey Co.

Rev. Morgan, of Allen Creek, preached at the Christian church Sunday.

The pastures and springs are all dried up in Casey, stock having to be driven miles for water in some sections.

We enjoyed our trip to the Nashville Centennial highly. You are always in good company when at Nashville as the democrats are at a ratio of 16 to 1.

Middleburg and Liberty will cross bats at the latter's grounds Saturday. The next game was to have been played Saturday week, but Prof. W. P. Ford having to be absent, it will be played Saturday.

We endorse all that the Lancaster scribe said about Mr. Farris. This district should by all means elect him and the democracy must see every voter of that stripe is out on the 20 day of next month.

J. N. Saunders, of your city, is billed to speak at Liberty Saturday in the interest of Hindman. Oh, the frost he will receive without the republican brethren come out. We know of but one out-spoken Hindman follower in the county.

Charles Finley, secretary of State, was billed to speak at this place last night in the interest of the republican ticket. What does this mean—the enemy's importing bolshewicks and radicals into Casey to speak. They must be on the brink of — (2)

Miss Helen Short was in Louisville last week buying up her winter outfit. Rev. Foster and wife have gone to Louisville for the winter. Mrs. W. I. Gann will go to Nashville in a few days, where she will visit her sister. W. P. Keeney ground till nearly midnight Saturday. We are a mighty fool about our bread down here anyhow. I. S. Wesley is in Louisville this week. V. B. Coleman, of Somerset, came in on a short stay Tuesday.

Of the 119,000,000 old copper cents which were sent out from the mint only the 900,000 have ever been accounted for, and only now and then is a stray one of the remaining 119,000,000 seen in circulation.

The present drought in Kentucky recalls memories of the remarkable drought of 1851. Frank P. Clay, Sr., remembers that no rain fell in Bourbon county from June 17th until October 12th.

At Lawrenceburg, Ind., Valley Huber, a one-legged insurance agent, fell and broke his sound leg for the fifth time. His other leg had been broken so often that it had to be amputated years ago.

By inoculating five healthy men with yellow fever germs and causing their death, Dr. Sanarelli has at least demonstrated that the disease is dangerous.

The average rain fall in the State during September was less than 1/4 of an inch. There wasn't that much here. The gold reserve in the National treasury is now $148,468,631.

LANCASTER

Mr. M. P. Elkin, the Macabee chief, and Mrs. Elkin, of your city, were here Sunday.

W. S. Benzley bought of George Ballard 17 fine cattle, weighing 1,150 pounds, at 4c.

Tuesday's issue of the INTERIOR JOURNAL was highly complimented. The faces of the candidates and the publication of the ballot manifests a commendable spirit of enterprise.

About noon Tuesday the clothing of a little girl, daughter of Richard Alldridge, near Hattsville, caught fire from the cooking stove, death resulting that night, after intense suffering.

Mr. George T. Farris has resigned the office of chief of police to open his campaign for State Senator. On Monday night the city council appointed Mr. E. M. Walker to fill the vacancy.

Mr. T. J. Hatcher, the boss shoe-maker, has just finished a pair of fine shoes for Capt. William Herndon. He says that he put a "spell" on them, which will prevent his running rapidly, and so arranged them that his trucks can be proved anywhere, thus allowing Judge Sanfley to win easily.

It has been suggested that the young men of this generation be put on the hardest and most important lesson of their lives and that is to tell who their friends are. This is a valuable lesson and one that but few old men have learned. We have many friends when they can see 100 per cent in the favor which they confer on us.

There is a disposition to elect a new board of city councilmen and the following gentlemen have been favorably mentioned: Dr. J. B. Kinnaird, Cyrus Eason, H. A. B. Marksberry, J. G. Sweeney, W. J. Romans, J. Hunt McShirtry, and J. C. Robinson for mayor. All parties will be represented in this board and they are all worthy citizens, who would always have in view the best interests of the people.

The authorities are waging war on the blind tigers again. On Wednesday John Ray, colored, was fined $25 in the police court for unlawfully selling whisky. This is an evil which can and should be suppressed, although there is less drunkenness under the blind tiger system than there is when the tiger has both eyes open and we should not license an evil because it occasionally manifests itself.

Drs. H. C. Herring and W. M. Elliott, two of our prominent physicians, went to Louisville Wednesday to attend the Mississippi Valley Medical Association. Mr. J. D. Guley, of Orville, O., is here with his old friends. He is not satisfied with his new home and will likely move back to this county. W. H. Lackey went to Cincinnati this week. Sheriff T. B. Robinson was in Richmond Tuesday attending a democratic committee meeting. Dr. Walter Benzley has moved his office into the Thompson block on Richmond Avenue.

A criticism has been made on certain church elders in this section. It is claimed that they join the tatters and backbiters in abusing an unfortunate sinner, instead of going to him and pleading with him to turn from the error of his way. He should act in the capacity of a shepherd and go out to bring the lost sheep back to the fold, instead of joining the wolves in destroying him. There are some who are no better fit for that office than the lowest barbarian in the wilds of Africa would be.

The woods and by-paths are full of candidates offering different arguments to induce the dear people to vote for them. The best argument exists in something tangible in the shape of a dollar and was unto him who uses it and allows the voter to go behind the curtain to vote. A man who will sell will take money and vote as he chooses. The better plan is to buy them to go fishing or drive cattle. The outlook is favorable for the democrats. A spirit of harmony and a determination to win prevails throughout the ranks. Let every democrat do his duty and persuade his neighbor to do so and the reward of victory will follow.

The treasury department figures that there are 73,300,000 people in the United States, and the money in circulation per capita was $22.89. Oct. 1, as follows: Gold coin, $528,098,753; standard silver dollars, $57,145,770; subsidiary silver, $61,176,415; gold certificates, $36,893,559; silver certificates, $374,620,299; treasury notes, act July 14, 1890, $59,816,063; United States notes, $251,795,544; currency certificates, act June 8, 1875, $52,825,000; national bank notes, $226,464,135; total, $1,678,840,538. A year ago the total amount was $1,582,302,289.

The court of appeals, by a divided vote, holds that a wife who had been in business for herself for a number of years following her husband's failure, and who made an assignment subsequent to the passage of the married woman's property act, is entitled to the exemption, notwithstanding her husband is still living but insolvent.

RELIGIOUS

The Cumberland Presbyterian Synod will be held at Hopkinsville, Oct. 26 to 29.

Dr. J. S. Ely, of Danville, will preach at the Presbyterian church here Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Elder J. T. Sharrard will preach as usual at the Christian church Sunday morning and night.

Rev. J. S. Sweeney was re-elected pastor of the Paris Christian church for the 27th consecutive year, Sunday. The congregation numbers 1,200.

Atlanta has a prodigy in eight-year-old John Wesley Shields, who preached a creditable sermon at St. Paul's Methodist church in that city Sunday.

In its report to the association the Pleasant Point church in this county says: "In prosperous condition now, but have been torn to shreds by sanctification craze."

After he had about decided to accept the Richmond, Va., call Rev. Carter Helm Jones received one from the Broadway Baptist church, Louisville, which changed his mind. He will remain in Louisville.

Rev. Stephen Tucker, D. D., recently of Decatur, Ala., who for years has stood high in the Presbyterian church, resigned his denominational faith and was ordained as a Baptist minister. Mr. Tucker was influenced to change his church by the arguments of Rev. William H. Whitsett in the recent controversy among the Baptists about baptism.

An earnest request is made by the pastor of the Baptist church that all its members be present at the services next Sunday morning. One feature of the service will be of very great importance and the pastor hopes that every member will take part in this special order of the service. The subject of Rev. J. B. Crouch's discourse will be, "Judgment Must Begin at the House of God."

Rev. J. B. Crouch says he has written for an evangelist to help hold a meeting at the Baptist church, beginning about the 20th of November, or as soon as the members are religiously ready. He says that a revival is like a boat—that during its progress every member catches hold of an oar to help paddle the church canoe, but when the big meeting closes they seem to let loose and the old church ship just has to drift along.

The Kentucky Conference of the African Methodist church held at Frankfort made the following appointments for this, the Danville district: J. W. Hill, presiding elder; Danville, A. J. Chambers; Richmond, G. W. Williams; Nicholasville, P. A. Nichols; Stanford, C. J. Cannon; Wilmore, J. Wilson; Shelby City, R. Dunn; White Hall, S. Wood; Bargain, L. T. Christopher; Beattyville, J. M. Coleman; London, John Caldwell; Jellico, J. W. Collier; Pineville, J. W. Law; Harboursville, A. C. Lewis; Manchester, A. Guy; Silver Creek, G. Spillman. The next annual session will be held at Harrodsburg.

POLK MILLER

Who will lecture at Walton's Opera House Oct. 20, tells this story:

When in a Kentucky town last winter I remained on the platform for some time after my entertainment to receive the cordial greetings of old friends and acquaintances among whom were many old Virginians. A lady who had moved from Virginia thirty years came up and said:

"Mr. Miller, I brought my old negro mammy out to hear you to-night. She is waiting for the audience to clear the middle aisle, when she will come down and speak to you. The old woman is 84 years of age, and lives almost entirely in the past. Several times during your entertainment to-night she has turned to me with the remark, 'Dat man is sho'ly takin' me back to de Virginny an' my young days dis night.'"

In a few minutes I looked down the aisle, and here came a typical old Southern mammy, with a white cap on her head, a ging-ham dress, and a clean white apron on. I bowed from a crowd of white friends, and reaching down from the stage I took the old woman's hand, saying as I did so, "Why mammy, howdy!" With a kind of whirling to and fro of my body, after the fashion of the colored folks in a religious meeting, I struck up a song (the old negro jobbing me) which to all Amelia county people, white and black, would always "raise the roof."

"Rise and shine, I'm gwine home to glory." The heartiness with which the old woman "joined in" was delightful, and to those who were present, it was the best part of a show which had been going on for more than two hours. When we had finished the "duet," the old woman looked up into my face and said:

"Son, I sho' is glad to see you, kaze you come from de Virginny, whar I did come from. You ken talk me like a bigger den a bigger talk like his self." Then her face assumed a serious look and she said: "My son, stop playin' of dat banjer or you'll never git to He'll'n!"

The report that the Indiana authorities had quarantined against Louisville on account of yellow fever cases in the city proved untrue after a great deal of excitement and some bad blood had been engendered. Gov. Bradley and many others telegraphed to Gov. Mount that there was no yellow fever in Louisville.

HUSTONVILLE

G. Clint Jenkins lost a valuable mare a few days since by being impaled on a fence.

J. Beecher Adams was appointed police judge by the city council to fill the unexpired term of H. R. Camnitz, who resigned to take charge of the post-office.

W. D. Weatherford sold to Lee Thomas, of Lexington, a bay gelding for $175, which he bought a few weeks ago for $100. J. W. Underwood sold to same party a gelding for $125.

On Friday and Saturday, to-day and to-morrow, I will have on exhibition at my parlors a full line of trimmed fall and winter hats and bonnets and other millinery goods. A general invitation is extended. Miss M. S. Logan, Hustonville.

The post-office has been moved to H. R. Camnitz's store and the new P. M. is catching on nicely. All are glad of Mr. C's good luck in securing the office, but they are equally as sorry for Mrs. Adella Woods, who had to give it up, as it was her only support.

Mrs. W. M. Stogdill, who was Miss Bessie Moore, spent several days with relatives here before her departure for her home at Denver. Col. James Adams, of Montgomery, Ala., who has been visiting his brother, Mr. L. B. Adams, has returned. Misses Mattie Alcorn and Lou Hopper are at Nashville.

At a meeting of the cattle combine recently held at Mt. Salem, Emmett McCormack was unanimously expelled from the company and George Cunden elected to take his place. Emmett says he got all out of the combine there was in it and wanted to quit. He will form a co-partnership with J. W. Allen to fight them.

Water is hard to get here at 50 cents per barrel. The mill can run only a few hours a week because of its scarcity, while M. E. Allen, the livery man, is compelled to get his supply from Kidd's Store, a distance of five miles. Many wells never known to go dry before have long since exhausted. Hanging Fork, with the exception of a few stagnant pools here and there, is as dry as a bone.

TEACHERS' JOINT ASSOCIATION.

Some 18 teachers from Lincoln, a dozen from Casey and 40 from Pulaski, assembled in joint association at Eubanks, Oct. 2.

The excellent program was carried out with a few exceptions. Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Goodnight, who were kept away by sickness, were the only ones who failed to respond to their numbers. A bountiful dinner was furnished by the residents of Eubanks and the teachers of Pulaski. P. H. Taylor, supt. of Casey, presided over the meeting. W. C. Grinstead, of Danville, honored the meeting with his presence, and added much to its interest. It is very evident that these meetings are growing beneficial and it is to be hoped we may have more of them.

Mr. C. D. Lewis, the president of the 4th magisterial district of Pulaski, is certainly to be congratulated on the success of the meeting, which was mainly due to his earnest endeavors.

The Lincoln County Teachers' Association will be held at Highland, Saturday, Oct. 16. All are invited to attend.

KATE BLAIN.

BRODHEAD.

Hon. F. F. Bobbitt was in town Tuesday.

As freight train, No. 37, was passing here the cylinder of the engine burst, some of the pieces striking F. Francis and we are fearful he is seriously injured.

In a mass convention of democrats at Saye's school house Wednesday Robt. Brown, of Level Green, was nominated for justice of the peace in this district. The candidate for constable will be selected Friday.

Rev. Kin Pike and others are holding a series of meetings at the Methodist church. Rev. Hendricks' appointment at the Baptist church is changed to the 3d Saturday at 11 o'clock and Sunday night at 7.

This being an "off year" in National politics, the democrats of Louisville and Jefferson county have wisely agreed to drop all their differences as to National issues and fight shoulder to shoulder for their more personal and immediate interests in good local government. And the results will fully vindicate both the common sense and the courage that proffered and accepted that plan of campaign.—Louisville Times. This is exactly what we have contended for all the time and for all the democratic tickets. The Times, however, blows hot and cold at the same time, by charging that when regular democratic papers seek such harmony as we are glad to know prevails in Louisville and which that paper advises there, it is only for hominy. What is good for Louisville is good for the whole State and it is as important that the republicans shall be ousted in Lincoln as it is in Louisville. Down with the marplots and those who seek to drive the factions further apart. There is room for them only in hades.

We were in hopes that as the democrats were getting along pretty well here that neither faction would put up speakers to foment discord and widen the breach, but we observe that Gov. Hindman is to be here next Tuesday and Josiah Patterson on the 16. Their coming would do anybody good and it might result in infinite harm. This is not the year, if there ever was or ever will be, for democrats to fight one another. The "nawsty" radicals need our attention.

Since the above was written we learn that Hon. G. G. Gilbert, of Shelbyville, will speak here Monday. It doesn't strike us that we need him either at this juncture, unless he comes with an olive branch instead of a fire brand.

It is said that Gov. Bradley has offered to give $100 towards hiring the auditorium at Louisville for a joint debate between Wm. Jennings Bryan and Senator Deboe, whose initials are also W. J., and may stand for the same names. This is the first direct evidence that the governor has a spite against the "250 pounds of salt pork" now masquerading as U. S. Senator. He knows that Deboe can not speak even a little bit, and that the exhibition would show what a demmed huss he is. As dense as he is, however, you will never get the freak Senator into such a snap as that. He knows when he is well off and has quite enough sense to keep his head out of the fire.

Six short months ago Editor John L. Bosley would not have given a nickel for a guarantee that he would get a place in the treasury department at Washington, so great was his confidence of securing the place. But there's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip, and the ex-Lincolnite, finding that all things are not what they seem, has apparently given up his ambition to go to Washington and announced himself for the very minor office of police judge of Paris.

HON. JOHN H. WILSON is now spoken of as likely to get either a place on the civil service commission or surveyor of the port at Louisville. His friends think one or the other of these salves should be applied to his wounded feelings for having to undergo a trial for the crime of conspiracy to bribe, a thing that never entered his head, if we are to believe half that was told on the witness stand.

THE English husband from whom Mrs. Langtry obtained a divorce in California has become a chattering imbecile and been placed in a lunatic asylum. With the prospect that he too will be driven crazy, the lot of the prince who has just taken the "Jersey Lily" to wife is not as happy a one as might be imagined.

THE Courier-Journal says that Pryor Force, of Shelbyville, the same who thought he was running for Congress in this district last fall, has come out for Hindman and will make speeches for him. So much the worse for Hindman.

MISS EMMA CURTIS, of Robertson county, after sighing for years for a husband who came not, advertised for a correspondent in the Cincinnati Enquirer. Ollie Redmond, of Indiana, answered and in a short time letters were flying thick and fast between them. Last week Mr. Redmond visited Miss Curtis for the first time and neither being disappointed, they were married next day. The regulation ending of a novel, "And they lived happily ever afterwards" will hardly be written in their case. It is a dangerous thing to monkey with the Enquirer's buzzsaw column and the girl who does generally gets the hot end of the poker. Better forever to sigh in single blessedness than to weep without ceasing over a union made in such a way. Hardly one case in a million of such proves happy.

If Josiah Patterson would devote more of his speech to showing the irreconcilable differences between democrats and republicans, he might do more good. As it is, he devotes about 99-100 of his remarks in the attempt to demonstrate the idiocy of silver democrats while the other 1-100 is mildly condemnatory of republicans for not coming up to their pre-election promises.

In swapping French Tipton for Robert Lee Davis, the democrats of Richmond ought in all honesty to pay boot tip may sit astride a whisky barrel for four years at $4 a day, but it is dollars to doughnuts that he will feel like a lost sinner all the time and long for the right he has given up for the flesh pots.

POLITICS

Senator Lodge thinks there is no doubt that Hawaii will be annexed at the coming session of Congress.

Tim Watson says he is out of politics and will not come to Kentucky in the present or any future campaign to make speeches.

The first two days' registration show large democratic gains in nearly all the cities, Louisville heading the list with 5,000 and over.

Connecticut has adopted an amendment to her constitution providing an educational qualification for suffrage and all other States should do so.

One Rhodes, who sucked federal milk from Carlisle for four years as collector at Richmond, thinks Bailey will be elected, so the Times says. Of course, he wants it. That is the shape of the Hannacrat leader. He takes no stock in Hindman.—Louisville Dispatch.

Judge Parker declines at Lexington that a circuit judge has no jurisdiction over a county judge in the appointment of election officers and that the removal of election officers is discretionary with the county judge, and that his action can not be corrected by a higher court.

John Williams, a Memphis Negro, confirms the story of Negro colonization schemes worked by Todd leaders. He says that several ear loads of Negroes were brought to Louisville Tuesday night from Memphis in order to register and vote for Todd. Their expenses, he says, were paid by an unknown man.

Chairman Johnston, of the democratic campaign committee, officially announces the following dates for William Jennings Bryan's Kentucky speeches: Glasgow, October 9; Lebanon, Oct. 11, 2:30 P. M.; Elizabethtown, Oct. 11, night; Russellville, Oct. 21; Henderson, Oct. 13; and Paducah, Oct. 13 at night.

The Lamb faction of the republican party in Virginia held a convention at Lynchburg and nominated a full State ticket, headed by Pat McCaull for governor. James Lyons, of Richmond, a turncoat, was named for attorney general. The Allen-Waddill faction control the regular organization, which with the approval of Chairman Hanna, decided not to name a State ticket and to take no part in the State election.

John M. Palmer, who headed the decoy presidential ticket, has volunteered his services to help the Negroes at Alton, Ill., in their fight to have their children admitted to the white schools, after the authorities had divided the funds and provided separate schools for them, which shows that he believes in Negro social equality. He has been a renegade, says the Louisville Dispatch, a traitor and a bolter in politics all his life, and every phase of his character grows blacker as he approaches the end of his career. He has reached a climax of infamy in this. Perhaps Gen. Buckner will not want his name dragged down in association with Palmer's to such a depth.

The handful of individual nonentities, who were carried into prominence by the great tidal waves of '95 and '96, have set themselves to the miserable task of putting the party on record as representing the worst elements. In Kentucky, where a vast population of ignorant and vicious Negroes is a constant menace to the security of the property-owning population, this new republican organization has, with a mad recklessness, declared itself for Negro equality, and right in Louisville a white man, the first republican mayor of Louisville, is brazenly defying public opinion and attempting to secure re-election to an office, by it to which he is clearly ineligible.—Louisville Capital, rep.

J. T. Sullivan, of Russell, has been nominated for the Legislature by the democrats of Casey and Russell.

The primary election between Judges Morrow and Denton, both of Somerset, as to which shall be the republican nominee for circuit judge, will occur to-morrow, with the result in doubt, though slightly in Morrow's favor.

An L. & N. train out of Montgomery flew the track at a split switch. The fireman was killed and the engineer and a postal clerk were injured.

James Bagley, aged 12, was shot and seriously wounded at Franklin, Ind., by Willie Wood, aged 15, who was guarding his father's melon patch.

The old stockholders of the L. & N. were re-elected. The road is in a flourishing condition, having earned $20,372,307 gross during the year ended June 30.

Floods in China and Japan have done great damage. Ten thousand people are said to have been drowned in 60 Chinese towns and 25,000 houses demolished in Japan.

Mrs. Theresa Allen, of Sydney, O., was fined $100 and sent to jail for 10 days for beating her four-year-old child. The little thing was a solid brute from head to foot while one of its arms was broken.

His Retort.

For one whole day not a cross word had been heard, and naturally both were in good humor.

"Why should we not go on like this forever?" she asked, at length. "Why can't we always agree?"

"Because," he explained, very earnestly, "once in a great while I like to have my own way."

Shortly thereafter he had slammed the door and started for the club, and she was excitedly asking herself why she had ever been foolish enough to marry.—Chicago Post.

Not Necessary.

"I have just had a note from Willie's teacher," said Mrs. Parvenue, "and she says that he is very deficient in spelling."

"What in thunder is he studying spelling for?" demanded Mr. Parvenue, angrily. "Does his teacher mean to insinuate that he won't be rich enough to hire a typewriter?"—Chicago Post.

A Harrowing Tale.

Morris—You was telling me the other day that a neighbor of yours had disappeared. You said that he had money with him and it was feared he had met with foul play.

Nimulus—It turned out as we feared. It seems he went off on a wedding trip.—Boston Transcript.

An Ill-Timed Call.

The New Pastor—Good morning, my dear child. Is your mamma at home?

Willie—Yes, sir, she's at home, but I'm afraid the consolations of religion will be thrown away on her to-day, sir.

"Dear me, and why so?"

"She's having trouble with her jelly, sir."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Heel's Tough Luck.

A North Carolina newspaper has this local item:

"As Col. Williams was driving home yesterday lightning struck his wagon and completely demolished a four-gallon demijohn of very fine whisky. The colonel has the sympathy of the community."—Atlanta Constitution.

PARIS.—500 cattle on the market and many left over for want of buyers. The extreme drought having made stock water scarce. Best sales about 4 cts. for feeders and good yearlings; common and mountain stuff low. Quite a number of mule colts sold from $20 to $50.—Kentuckian.

Thorn, by Wilkes Boy, and driven by Orin Hlekok, won the Futurity at Lexington Tuesday taking the last three of the six heats trotted. China Silk won the first heat and Preston the next two. No extra grades on the market.—Richmond Clinch.

A large crowd was present at Squire John Bailey's sale in the West End Wednesday and reasonably fair prices were realized throughout. The farm had been previously rented to his sons for $500 who bought most of the farming implements and some of the stock before the sale. Horses brought from $30 to $55; milk cows $20 to $30; work mules $45.50; yearling heifers $12 to $14; stock hogs 3 to 3 1/2; fat hogs 3 1/2; corn in the field $1.75 to $1.76 1/2. Mr. Bailey has discarded the thought of moving West and will live with his sons on the old place.

A fairly good crowd attended J. P. Gover's sale Tuesday, but bidding generally was slow. There were no bidders on the farm either for rent or sale and Mr. Gover will likely live on it at least another year to the delight of his neighbors who hated the thought of giving up him and his estimable wife. A horse mule colt brought $12.50; yearling horse mules $20; two-year-old mare mules $40; two-year-old horse mules $38; aged mules $48 to $71; brood mares $16 to $40; fat hogs 3.45; yearling steers $20.55; yearling heifers $15.75; corn in the field $1.75. A Word To You.

Having considered the question from almost every standpoint, we have decided to adopt

beginning July 1, 1897, believing that it will be more satisfactory to both buyer and seller. No bad debts will accumulate, consequently we can sell goods cheaper. It will take much less capital, our expenses will be less and there is every reason why the cash system will prove satisfactory. We only ask you to try it awhile and if you find it is not to your advantage, we will not kick on your buying from merchants who sell on credit. We are satisfied we can sell you goods from 10 to 25 per cent. cheaper than the credit men and this should certainly be an inducement to you. Very truly,

FARRIS & HARDIN,

High Locust Herd Reg. Poland Chinas.

OWING to a freight wreck on the Main line, No. 23 was held at Lebanon Junction for passengers and did not arrive here till after 4 P. M. Wednesday.

THERE must be a big crop of grapes when a 10-pound basket retails in Cincinnati at 8c and in Lexington at 12c. There is no foreign demand for them, however, and their price, like that of silver, has gone down.

NO rain yet and the earth is as dry as tinder. Stock water is getting very scarce and in many instances the animals have to be driven miles to water, which is almost too thick to slake thirst when they get to it.

THE L. & N. has raised freight rates on this division 1 cent a hundred on most groceries less than our local lots. We do know the reason for it, except the same the boy gave for his father's whipping him, "because he can."

THE Winchester Democrat gets off the following: J. F. Tarter has been appointed postmaster at Milledgeville, Lincoln county. It is hardly necessary to add that this constitutes J. F. as the Cream of Tarter in that neighborhood.

PUBLIC SALE.—On Thursday, Oct. 14, 1897, at the late residence of Maj. P. D. Higney, at Phil. Casey county, I will offer for sale all the stock, crop and farming implements, household and kitchen furniture. The farm will be rented if not sold. W. O. Higney, 21.

WHEW! but the free turnpikes are costing like soot. There are about 50 miles free in the county and these have been under the supervision of the magistrates who in the short time of the new order of things have spent $1,000 or more on them, according to returns made to the board court. At this rate old Lincoln will soon be bankrupt.

THE Turnersville Christian Endeavor Society will be given a low rate excursion to Cincinnati on Saturday, Oct. 16, at the exceedingly low rate of $2.25 and $1.25 for children over the U. & C., passengers boarding the train at either McKinney or Moreland. Further information given later. G. L. Carpenter.

A WELL on Neal's Creek that was bored for salt 60-odd years ago and was stopped up with a sycamore plug, was opened this week, by the people hunting for water. Dink Farmer says, when they found the plug sound and on taking it out a stream of fresh water gushed out and is still flowing to their great delight.

OF Polk Miller, who will be with us on the 20th, Mr. Henry Watterson says: "He is the best one man show in America." The Houston, Texas, Post, says "Mr. Miller doesn't lecture, he just talks, plays the banjo to perfection, and sings Negro songs in a way that beats a Negro himself." Remember the date and that the admission will only be 75c and 50c.

ALMOST A FIRE.—A few evening since Misses Mary and Maggie Noel noticed a blaze running several feet high out of the chimney of the residence of their father, Rev. R. R. Noel, with sparks falling over the dry roof, and a big conflagration was imminent, but he hastened to the roof, while they carried water to him with the swiftness of experienced firemen and the danger was shut off without giving the fire alarm.

NEWS comes from the East End that the leading republicans having seen the handwriting on the wall that the democratic ticket will be elected, have ceased to make special effort except for J. F. Cummins for clerk and J. C. King for sheriff. The word has gone forth, it is said, to trade anything and anyway to elect these two, which are really the best on the ticket. But even they will not be able to pull through. The democracy is going to make a clean sweep this time and Cummins and King will share the fate of "Poor Dog Tray."

HON. W. J. BRYAN will speak at Lebanon next Monday at 2:30. The L. & N. will doubtless run special trains at reduced rates, but no notice of it has yet been given.

WARREN & SHANKS are connected with the Central Office and their number is 2. Mrs. Lou Shanks' residence is also connected and her number is 17. Both were omitted from the list printed Tuesday.

THE local court met Tuesday and after allowing claims down as far as the letter "M" adjourned till today, Friday. The pay of a 2-horse wagon hauling on roads was increased to $2 a day. It had been $1.75.

A BET of $10 to $1 that James P. Bailey would be the next county judge was offered by a drummer whose headquarters is here, but there wasn't a single taker. The "old gentleman" is a pretty hot favorite.

FIRM CHANGE.—Mark Hardin has bought Mr. H. C. Farris' interest in the general merchandising firm of Farris & Hardin and the last few days have been spent in invoicing. The hotel will remain a partnership business.

BURGLARY.—J. E. Wright's store at Milledgeville was burglarized a few nights ago and a small lot of goods of various kinds are missing. The money drawer was broken open but as it contained only two coppers they did not bother them.

THE lady manager of the Telephone Exchange desires us to say for the benefit of a certain Danville man that the lavatory in the office is not for the use of the general public, nor would it be an aid for a gentleman to perform his ablutions in the presence of ladies, if it was.

THE welkin, that is the court-house, will ring with oratory Monday. Hon. R. C. Warren has an appointment to speak for democracy and Judge W. H. Holt, of Frankfort and Hon. G. G. Gilbert, of Shelbyville, are also down to speak, the one for the republican ticket, the other for the democratic.

RATS.—Rats caused Mr. C. M. Jones to lose at least $200 on his bunch of export cattle sold recently. They were weighed on Hon. John Sam Owsley's scales and notwithstanding that he thought the cattle were light, no investigation was made until a few days ago, when it was found that the rats had roamed up the ground until a portion of the machinery rested on earth, when a certain amount of weight was on the scales. For instance, five cattle were weighed together and then separately and by the latter way a gain of 75 pounds was discovered. Mr. Jones will make an effort to secure the shortage in weight, but it is hardly probable that he will secure it.

PULLING THE OX OUT OF THE DITCH.—Mr. A. C. Carman is telling it around with "ghoulish glee," on the statement of a democrat, as he says, that Mr. M. F. North, democratic candidate for representative, actually, and with malice aforethought and evil premeditation, on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday. We had an idea that Mr. North was not so fond of work but that he could do all he wanted to do in the six days allotted for it, but all the same we asked him about the charge. "Yes sir," said he, "I did cut wheat on Sunday and for another run. My son had been disappointed in getting a binder, of which he had the promise. His wheat had ripened and was falling down, a storm was threatening and it would ruin the entire crop, which was his only chance for bread. In order to save my own crop I had to buy a binder and when I finished late the Saturday before I moved to my son's field. In the meantime the clouds gathered and I determined to try to save as much of his crop I could. It was merely a case of pulling the ox out of the ditch, for doing which I have Scriptural authority, and which I would do again under similar circumstances. Show me a man who wouldn't have done as I did and I will show you one that is too goodly-good for this wicked world. In any event, however, cutting wheat on Sunday is no worse than voting before you are of legal age."

CRAID ORCHARD.—Rev. Gashwilder's married daughter and husband are here on a visit to him. His two young daughters are attending his school. They are boarding with Mrs. McAllister. Messrs. W. M. Myers and J. M. Bronaugh left a few days ago for their school in Cincinnati—the Ohio Dental College. They are two of our handsomest and brainiest young men. Mrs. Dave Payne is considered dangerously ill with drowsy. Mr. Dave Edmiston, our clever U. S. ranger, left Saturday for Anderson county to be gone a month. Mr. Frye, of Danville, has been put in his place here. He is boarding with Mrs. Harris. Rev. Gashwilder preached two excellent sermons at the Baptist church Sunday. They would do well to employ him as their regular pastor, and he wants the place, and would be quite an assistance in our Sunday school.

There is a G. A. R. post at La Porte, Ind., composed entirely of priests, who won distinction on the battlefield.

The Best
Disc Drill
BEST: MADE!

Don't Go.—Messrs. B. K. Wearen & Son, Stanford—Gentlemen: In reply to your letter will say that the Kentucky Disc Drill stands strictly on its merits; the makers fight their law suits in court and not in the papers and no purchaser of this drill need fear any legal entanglement. Also that other drills must be deficient in a real merit when their makers seek to scare people into buying them. We guarantee protection. Yours, Breun & Co's Western Agricultural Works, Louisville, Sept. 2. But's wont work. There is no mistake about this machine being double-goured. Farmers can see for themselves.

We are making preparations for a big output of goods. When you hear our prices you will then know we mean to sell the goods. Our aim in making these unprecedented prices is to reach out and furnish our adjoining counties, which fact has always proven itself where a customer favored us with a call. We are here for business, quick sales and small profits.

The Best is always imitated. The Superior is the Genuine Disc Drill. Has been thoroughly tested and gives satisfaction. All other Disc Drills are an expensive and an infringement on the Superior. Suit has been entered in the U. S. Court against one company for infringement. Farmers, investigate before buying.
